Dear Visitor,

K.D. IMPORTS, LLC has been involved in the importation of fine wines primarily from Italy for over a decade. A Florida-based company, we are known primarily for our San Giulio brand, a private label collection of sparkling wines specifically chosen for the US market and which are also chosen and recommended in more than 1,000 of the finest Italian restaurants throughout Italy and in addition to the USA are exported to more than 15 countries around the world. Today our company's portfolio continues to be comprised of a hand-picked selection of wines which we believe represent tremendous value to our customers and which we are very proud to represent. These products are the result of a desire by our producers to provide our customers with the highest value, finest quality products in the market today.

The K.D. Imports, LLC portfolio is comprised of four lines targeted for every segment of the market - on-premise, retail, grocery, etc. From a high-end on-premise line on down, K.D. Imports, LLC provides products to meet every budget and price point.

In a nutshell, K.D. Imports, LLC brings unique strengths to our partnerships while ensuring the highest quality of product and service. We represent wineries that have a combined nearly five hundred years of experience in cultivating and producing the finest grapes and wines of Italy! K.D. Imports, LLC is confident in our abilities, in our products, and in our services.

Doing business with K.D. Imports, LLC, you will work with a true partner – one that provides assistance in customer education, growth and stability, and the satisfaction that your investment is foremost a front runner in your industry.

Our partnership with the President of the Piedmont region of the Italian Sommelier Society provides us with contacts and opportunities that most US Importers do not have.

Chances are, if you are in need of something to round out your product offering, replace an existing product in an effort to upgrade your current product offering, or improve the value of your product offerings (quality as compared to price) we fall into one of the following two categories:

1. We have the right product in our existing portfolio already, or
2. We have the contacts, knowledge, and capabilities to find the right product and develop a program specifically for you.

We at K.D. Imports do not want to “sell” you anything... our goal is to be the company that you look to help solve problems, exploit opportunities, and provide a competitive advantage in the very competitive marketplace that we all operate in today. This is where we feel we can add the most value to your organization and continue to evolve our role from the traditional “supplier” role to that of a true Partner.

We welcome the opportunity to work closely with you as we look to establish a relationship and grow our business in a mutually beneficial way. Until we have the opportunity to meet in person, please do not hesitate to contact us directly with any questions, requests, comments, and/or concerns.

Thanks for your time, your consideration, and best wishes for continued success and for a very prosperous future!
